Jewish Holy Days Begun in Southland

Rosh Hashanah, or New Years, services which began at sundown Tuesday evening opened the 10-day observance of the Jewish High Holy Days in Southern California temples and homes.

Rosh Hashanah services also were held yesterday morning when the sounding of the shofar, or ram's horn, summoned the faithful to temples and synagogues. The observance this year marks the advent of the Jewish year 5717.

Dedicated to the improvement of human lives by application of Divine ideals, the High Holy Days will be climaxed by Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement, which will begin at sundown, Sept. 14.

Arrangements have been made through the USO-National Jewish Welfare area office for Jewish service men and women to observe the High Holy Days as guests of local families and temples.

Pastor Goffar Returns From Church Meeting

Pastor Glenn L. Goffar and his family of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church have returned to their home at 4527 Palos Verdes Dr. N. following a five-day major church conference in the San Bernardino mountains.

During the week Pastor Goffar and his wife attended lectures, discussion groups, and panel sessions on major church plans and problems of Southern California ministers. More than 250 other clergymen from Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura counties have been attending the convention.

In addition to hearing outstanding Southland church ministers present addresses at the conference, Pastor Goffar has heard lectures by noted international authorities on counseling and archaeology. Dr. Seifried Horn, Washington, D. C., presented daily studies on ways in which archaeology has proven Biblical teachings. Dr. G. T. Anderson, president of the College of Medical Evangelists, Dr. W. F. Specht, director of the School of Religion, La Sierra College, Arlington, California; and Dr. Arthur L. Bletz, director, Division of Religion, College of Medical Evangelists were other major speakers of the conference.

Evangelist To Appear

Evangelist Bill Lewis is scheduled to be the special speaker at the Harbor City Revival Tabernacle, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., next week. Services at the Tabernacle are held nightly, except Monday and Saturday, at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor Fred Martin reported that the church has moved into its new building after being housed in rented quarters for the past four years. Pastor Martin also stated that most of the labor needed in the new building was donated by members of the congregation.

Baptists Set Church Slate

Dr. J. C. Brumfield will be speaking at both services at the South Bay Baptist Church on Sunday. The morning service will include the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper.

The men's prayer fellowship will meet at 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday. Prayer meeting and Bible study will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. This meeting will also include the regular monthly business meeting. On Thursday at 7:30 p.m. the choir meets for practice.

Coming in the future is the men's prayer conference at Camp Cedarcrest, Arrowbear, to be held Sept. 21 thru 23.

To Describe Red Purge

Fiendish activities of the Bela Kun in Hungary proved to be first indications of what government by communism meant, according to Geza Orley, of Torrance, who escaped from Hungary during the initial purge.

He will relate his experiences to the men and women of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at the regular meeting of the men's fellowship Tuesday at the parish hall at 8 p.m. All members of the parish are invited to attend.

A short prayer service will precede the meeting.

SAFETY HINTS from the Red Cross

This is the way not to start a fire but a conflagration. Waste paper is cheap and plentiful in most households — use it to kindle a fire in an open grate, not kerosene or any similar oil.
